La Voix - 2021 Press Release

Award winning star and Royal Family favourite La Voix is on tour with her brand new performance extravaganza, titled, 'The UK's Funniest Red Head.'

La Voix's shows have become a phenomenon in many towns and cities around the world and 2021 sees La Voix's most glamorous show yet taking the UK by storm!

Most famously known for making it down to the finals of Britain's Got Talent, La Voix has since gone on to be a regular on stage and screen!

The show promises an impressive new repertoire of songs and gags and no less than 8 stunning new gowns!

A Celebrity favourite, La Voix's accolades are endless, even receiving validation from comedy icon - Jennifer Saunders who advises show goers 'to wear thick pants because you'll wet yourself laughing'

The diva's effortless vocal performances are interspersed with a razor-sharp wit which brings audiences to their feet time and time again, whistling for more at every show.

Broadway Baby* wrote: "La Voix's patter is lightning fast and stomach-punchingly funny."

La Voix's unique act has not only caught the imagination of theatre goers and fellow performers across the globe, but when the feisty, flame-haired phenomenon is not giving it out on her hilarious talk show on BBC Radio Three Counties, she's busy performing for the royal, rich and the famous. She has twice entertained Princes William and Harry at their New Year's Eve party, and also topped the bill at Sir Ian McKellan's 80th birthday bash when she was lavishly commended by the knight of the realm who said: "La Voix's impersonations are surpassed only by her own cheekily entertaining personality. A genuine one-off!"

This will be the hottest ticket in town and spoken about for months to come, so grab your ticket now to see The UK's Funniest Red Head in action
